Transfer courses may not be used to meet the FIU Global Learning Requirement. For a list of Global learning courses: http://goglobal.fiu.edu

Steven J. Green School of International and Public Affairs Requirements:
A minimum of 120 semester hours in acceptable coursework is required.

At least half of the upper division credits in any major must have been taken in at FIU.

In the last 60 semester hours of enrollment, students must earn nine semester hours of elective credits through coursework outside the major, six of which are to be taken outside the department sponsoring the program.

Students must earn a grade of C or higher in all courses required for the major. A grade of C- or lower is not acceptable in any required course. Secondary Education majors have an additional GPA requirement.

Of the total number of hours submitted for graduation, a minimum of 48 semester hours must be in upper division courses.

Students must demonstrate competency in a foreign language or in American Sign Language at the level of the second semester of a college language sequence. (High school courses cannot be used to fulfill this requirement.) This requirement may be met by successfully completing with a grade of C or better (C- does not count): a) the second semester of a two-semester sequence basic language course or b) any second-year or third-year foreign language course. This requirement may also be fulfilled by presenting acceptable scores in the
